Numb. 134.

THE Souh-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, AUGUST 14, to Saturday, AUGUST 21, 1736.

By the Honourable
THOMAS BROUGTON Eſq;
Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS two Acts were paſſed in the Province of South-Carolina the one in February 1731, and the other in April 1734, which are intituled as follows, viz.

" An Act to prevent any Delay of Juſ-
" tice that may be occaſioned by not draw-
" ing the Juries which are to ſerve at the
" next enſuing Court of Common Pleas,
" General Seſſions of the Peace, Oyer and
" Terminer, Aſſize and General Goal De-
" livery, on the Days appointed for that
" Purpoſe; and for the regulating of the
" ſeveral Courts therein mentioned.

" An Act for the better regulating the " Courts of Juſtice in this Province, and for
" altering the time of holding of Courts.

AND whereas the ſaid two Acts together with a Repreſentation from the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantation, propoſing the Repeal thereof, having been referr'd to the Conſideration of a Committee of the Lords of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council for Plantation Affairs, the ſaid Lords of the Committee did on the 4th Day of March 1735, Report their Opinion to his Majeſty, that the ſaid Acts ought to be Repealed: His Majeſty in Council taking the ſame into his Conſideration was graciouſly pleaſed to declare his Diſallowance of the ſaid Acts, and purſuant to his Majeſty's Royal Pleaſure thereupon expreſſed the ſaid Acts are hereby Repealed, declared void and of none Effect. I have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice and Conſent of his Majeſty's Council of this Province, to iſſue this my Proclamation, to ſignifie to all his Maieſty's Subjects of this his Province his Royal Will and Pleaſure concerning the ſaid Acts, that none may pretend ignorance thereof.

Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province at Charles-Town, the 14th Day of Auguſt in the Tenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign Annoque Domini 1736.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

THOMAS BROUGHTON.

By his Honour's Command
JAMES MICHIE Dep. Secr.

Hague, May 30. On Tueſday laſt his Britannick Majeſty arrived at Helvoetſluys between two and three o'Clock in the Afternoon, under a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon, and went immediately into a Coach for the Brill; where he was ſaluted by a Diſcharge of the Cannon from the Ramparts, and croſſed over the Meaſlandſluys, and paſſed through Rotterdam between five and ſix in the Evening; being alſo ſaluted by a triple Diſcharge of the Canon there, and arrived at Utrecht between 11 and 12 that Night; where he reſted at M. Pouchoude's his Majeſty's Electoral Miniſter there. On Wedneſday about ſeven o'Clock in the Morning he ſet out for Bentheim, where he arrived about five o'Clock in the Evening: His Majeſty was alſo ſaluted there by a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon from the the Caſtle, and ſupped and reſted there that Night; to which Place his Majeſty was attended by Parties of Dutch Dragoons. The next Morning being Thurſday, his Majeſty ſet out for Dippenau, attended by Parties of Dragoons of his own Troops, and arrived there about ſix in the Evening; where he was complimented by ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction, the Magiſtrates, &c. on his ſafe Arrival in his German Dominions. And on Friday Morning laſt his Majeſty ſet out about eight o'Clock for Herenhauſen, attended by the Marquis de la Foreſte, his Chamberlain, and freſh Parties of Dragoons; where he arrived in perfect Health between four and five o'Clock that Afternoon, and was received with great Acclamations of Joy, &c. Mynheer Hop, Miniſter from this State, arrived here on Tueſday Evening, and propoſes to go to Hanover in few Days. The Affair of Bergues and Juliers makes the States General very uneaſy; his Pruſſian Majeſty having abſolutely declared his Intention of taking Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Countries; which can't be done without ſome Trouble: But as the Affair is referred to the King of Great-Britain, theſe Provinces had ſeveral Conferences on that Head with his Excellency Horatio Walpole; and Mynheer Hop is charged to preſent a Memorial to his Britannick Majeſty on that Subject, alledging their Reaſons, and the Inconveniencies that may follow, in caſe any violent Meaſures ſhould be taken. The Engliſh Ambaſſador ſet out Yeſterday in a Yacht for Utrecht in his way to Hanover.

LONDON, May 25.

The Spaniards have burnt Oſtia down to the Ground, for the trifling Offence of ſtopping a few of their Officers, and ſetting at Liberty the Soldiers whom they inliſted by Force: That Rome is to expect no better Fate, is viſible, from the large Body of Troops which has been ſent from Naples under the Command of the Duke of Caſtropignano, and from the dreadful Train of Artillery, and prodigious Quantity of Bombs, and other warlike Ammunitions, which have been put on board ſeveral Galleys bound for Nettuno. But after all, ſome People are of Opinion, that this mighty Spleen againſt the Pope is nothing but mere Farce, and that the Spaniards have ſome other Deſign in Agitation.

The Taking of Aſoph, which is now confirmed beyond all Doubt, has ſo far engaged the Grand Signior, that he has given Orders for new Levies for arming the Militia, and for aſſembling with all poſſible ſpeed all the Troops in Albania, Boſnia, Theſſalonia, and Morea, amounting to 130,000 Men, in order to make Head againſt the Ruſſians; But this will appear very trifling, if we conſider that the Emperor, who is going to form a Camp near Eſſeck under the Command of Count Palfi, is to make a Diverſion in Hungary, the Czarina towards the Black Sea, and Kouli Kan on the Frontiers of Perſia.

King Staniſlaus was ſo generous as to leave at the Caſtle of Koninsgberg all the rich Furniture which was ſent to him from France.

The March of the 300 Spaniards from Terracina has ſo frightened the poor Peaſants, that they fly for Shelter to Rome, where the greateſt Danger is to be apprehended. Their Infatuation in this reſpect has ſome Reſemblance with that of the Jews at the Siege of Jeruſalem.

King Staniſlaus arrived the 29th Inſtant at Weſel; where having viewed the Fortifications and the Citadel, he ſet out the next Day for Guelderland, under the general Diſcharge of all the Artillery.

The Lord Theodore pays his Troops every three Days; which gives them ſuch Life, that no Town can withſtand them: They lately took Bebio, where they found ſome warlike Ammunitions belonging to the Genoeſe; and they were not long in Poſſeſſion of the Place when they received a freſh Supply of Money, Powder, and Ball.

A great Train of Artillery, with a large Quantity of Bombs, Powder, Shot, and other warlike Miniſters of Revenge, have been ſent from Naples to carry Don Carlos's Compliments to his Spiritual Father, the Pope; but how his Holineſs will reliſh them, we may eaſily gueſs. This is but an odd ſort of Acknowledgment in the Royal Don for the Pope's Complacency in making his Brother Archbiſhop of Toledo and a Cardinal before he was nine Years of Age.

Dublin, May 18. We learn from Belfaſt, that a great Number of Proteſtant Families all over the North are preparing to tranſport themſelves to America, and that, notwithſtanding the Care our Legiſlature have taken to check this Spirit in the People, the ſame ſeems to encreaſe every Day, and is now at ſuch a heighth, that by a moderate Computation, no leſs than Ten Thouſand Proteſtants will tranſport themſelves this Seaſon. This growing Evil, ſo prejudicial to the Intereſt of the Country in general, and to that of our Linnen Manufacture in particular, is, as 'tis ſaid, chiefly, if not entirely, owing to the Landlords, who do not give their Tenants proper Tenures, whereby they are diſcouraged from making Improvements on their Lands.

June 1. From Genoa of the 23d of May, N. S. we have the following Letter: 'Our laſt Letters from Baſtia are of the '11th; they tell us, that the Rebels are 'retired from the Neighbourhood of that 'City, and have begun to commit great 'Cruelties. Baron Theodore ſtill continues 'the Exerciſe of his pretended Sovereignty; 'he has ordered Copper Money to be coined, 'and a great Quantity of Corn to be ground, 'that he may be in a Condition to undertake 'ſome conſiderable Sieges as ſoon as the 'Reinforcements which he expected the 15th

'are

'are arrived: It is believed that ſhould they 'fail him, his Reign will not ſubſiſt any long 'Time, becauſe the daily Executions by his 'Order, cannot fail to raiſe him Enemies in 'the Country, from whom he will have 'every Thing to dread.

Savanna in Georgia, Auguſt 5.

Thomas Mellichamp lately found guilty of forging South-Carolina Bills, was Yeſterday apprehended here, together with a Gang of Men of very vile Characters, upon ſome of whom ſtolen Goods were taken; he is committed to Goal for Forgery, the Grand Jury here having found a Bill of Indictment againſt him for that Crime, his Mother and Family, being concerned in the Proceedings of the Gang, and conveying away Goods, are expelled the Colony.
